The CONIAD
Cony High School
Augusta, Maine 1964

FOREWORD

"Our Cony" is changing. Within a few years, such familiar scenes as a crowded study hall in 32, our musty locker rooms, or a "green" freshman staring in awe at the dignified statue of Abraham Lincoln, will probably no longer exist. In fact, when the new Cony is built, most of her physical characteristics will be different. Of course her traditions will live on; but with each change, a part of the Cony we know will vanish forever. Therefore, we, the Coniad Staff of 1964, choose as our theme Cony as we see her, Cony as we will always remember her, "Our Cony."

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of '64 has known Miss Gibbs for only four of her forty-four years of teaching at Cony High School. In those short years we have learned from her the true meaning of dedication and school spirit. In an effort to express our appreciation and respect, we, the 1964 Coniad Staff, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Miss Hazel Gibbs.

Faculty

During the last four years our teachers have spent many hours correcting our papers, preparing for classes, and advising us in our extracurricular activities. In return, we have often not shown our appreciation for their attempts to prepare us to take our places as adult members of society. In this section of the Coniad the Class of 1964 wishes to thank the teachers for their patience, their good humor, and their great efforts to help us become good citizens.

REMINGT

Seniors

Probably we, the seniors, will be the last class to know Cony as it is today – the walls that need repair, the stairs that creak, the windows that rattle, the rooms with near-zero temperature – yet, we hold many things dear, and as the time comes to depart, we have this to say:

"Red for our courage,
White for our worth,
Fighting for Cony
The Best on earth"!

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Standing: Vice-President Ralph White, President Noel Bailey.

Seated: Secretary-Treasurer Mary Lou Marsh.

SENIOR STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS

CONIAD EDITORS
AND ADVISOR

Seated: B. Brann, Editor-in-chief N. Bailey, J. Leighton. Standing: Advisor Miss Giddings, F. Hastings, Advisor Mrs. Dogherty.

CONIAD STAFF

Every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon several members of the senior class were frantically typing, identifying pictures, and making layouts for your 1964 Coniad. Editor-in-chief Noel Bailey and his assistants, Jane Leighton, Barbara Brann, Fred Hastings, and Nancy Overlock, with the faculty advisors, Miss Giddings and Mrs. Dogherty, met to decide the theme and the dedication and to compose the "dummy."

The personals staff, headed by Diane Violette, worked long and hard to find information about each senior. Jack Tarr's business staff solicited all the advertisments and headed the subscription drive.

Linda Powell, with her typists, and the proofreaders under Ralph White's leadership handled all the written material. There was a great deal of checking and rechecking each class list as well as all pictures and copy.

The Coniad staff hopes that your pleasure in receiving this yearbook will compensate their hard efforts.

THE UNSUSPECTED

Seated: Pennie Hume, Michael Campbell, Tina Esser, Parker Beverage.
Row 2: James Downing, Mary Lou Marsh, Jane Leighton, Edward Holt, Susan Kottler, Barbara Brann, Noel Bailey.
Row 3: Miss Besier, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Dyer.

THE UNSUSPECTED

For the first time in many years, the Seniors presented a mystery as their class play. The Unsuspected starred Michael Campbell as Luther Grandison, a ruthless, cold-blooded murderer. Playing the parts of Martin and Ruby Press Grandison's "menials" and unwilling accomplices were Noel Bailey and Barbara Brann. Jane Leighton, as Grandison's secretary, had the unenviable job of typing his bloody play, The Unsuspected. Beautiful, seductive model, Althea Keene, was Pennie Hume with Jim Downing as her henpecked husband. The part of Tyl Frazier, Grandison's former ward, was filled by Tina Esser. Parker Beverage appeared as Frank Howard, who was posing as Tyl's husband to learn more about the murder. Mary Marsh and Sue Kottler played the parts of two obnoxious reporters, Lillian Whitworth and Paula Vargas. Detective Gahagen, chief officer of justice, was Ed Holt. From the moment when Mr. and Mrs. Press entered and begged to quit, to the untimely death of Althea and the climax when Frank Howard was found unconscious in a trunk, the audience was kept in suspense.

SCENES FROM THE UNSUSPECTED

You're a true son of Barrymore.

"The key, Mrs. Press. I'd like that key."

Gahagen, my heart's on the other side!

WASHINGTON TRIP

"Years To Grow In"

This coming fall, freshmen will enter "old Cony," we anticipate, for the last time. As for this year's underclassmen, they have endured the hardships of the school year in a way that guarantees they will be able to face both the joys and disappointments of life tomorrow.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Seated: Secretary Andrea Larsen.

Standing: President Charles Gallant, Vice-President Maynard Young.

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS

Seated: Carol Gilfillan.

Standing: Charles Gallant, Vice-President Eric Morrill, Betty Perkins.

CONY

Sports

One very important phase of Cony's curriculum includes an extensive program of inter-scholastic and intra-mural athletics. Throughout the school year, both boys' and girls' teams carry competitive schedules of games. The Sports Section of the Coniad consists of a summary of all the games and scores along with team pictures and candids.

FOOTBALL 1963

The Cony Varsity Football Team, under new Coach Graydon Lord and Assistants Richard Hunt and Grady Erickson, met strong competition this year in the Southwestern Maine Class A Football Conference. Unable to "get the ball rolling" early in the season, the team finally pushed through with a 7-6 victory over Rumford. Constantly practicing and playing hard, the Rams didn't allow defeats to discourage them, and they revealed this as they ended their 1963 season with a well-played 7-0 verdict over the rival Gardiner Tigers. An excellent rally aroused the spirit for this game, and the clash was viewed by nearly 5,000 rain-soaked fans. A well-deserved salute goes to the following seniors, who said "Never say die": Co-captains Don Pruett and Charlie Chaplin, Doug Morrill, Walt MacFarland, Tim Kaler, Lonnie Piper, Ralph White, Bill Vincent, Cal Brawn, John Carleton, and Tom Dunn.

Co-captains: Donald Pruett, Charlie Chaplin, and Coach Lord

SENIOR FOOTBALL PLAYERS

DON PRUETT – The field general and one of the co-captains of the Cony Rams, Don was respected by his teammates and injected into them much of his hustle and desire to win.

DOUG MORRILL – The greased-lightning halfback for Cony, Doug was ready to go the distance on every offensive play. On defense, a man rarely got by Doug's safety position.

GERARD CARON – Called "Tuna" by his teammates, Gerard proved to be a fine team man and was liked by all the Rams.

JOHN CARLETON – John proved he was an able utility man and often showed some of his razzle-dazzle football while playing at halfback or substituting for Pruett at quarterback.

TIM KALER – Although Tim was hampered by leg and ankle injuries throughout most of the season, they never hindered his typical tight defense and sure tackles when he was playing.

LONNIE PIPER – Because of his speed, Lonnie was a valuable reserve for the backfield and a frequent ballhandler on kickoff returns.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN – The other Ram co-captain, Charlie was always ready with a good joke or laugh off the field; but while playing, he fought with victory in his mind.

TOM DUNN – Tom, at 270 pounds, the largest of Cony's mammoths, was determined that no one stop him as he moved in on a defensive play.

CAL BRAWN – Another of Cony's king-sized linemen, Cal, even when defeat was imminent, never stopped fighting.

WALT MACFARLAND – A welcome addition to the Ram line, Walt, even though he was relatively small for an interior lineman, was hard to move and was always determined.

RALPH WHITE – Because Ralph continually displayed his ability as a lineman on both offense and defense, he saw only a very few parts of a game from the bench.

BILL VINCENT – Bill takes pride in everything he does, and certainly he should pride himself on his football ability.

Absent: B. Maxim.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The Cony Frosh, under the able coaching of Kenneth Pruett and William Hanlon, compiled a very respectable record this year by winning three of the five games they played and by outscoring their opponents fifty-eight to fifty. The only disappointment in their season was that the Baby Rams did not get a chance to beat the Gardiner Tigers — the game was rained out twice. The Cony Yearlings, who began practicing before the opening of school, learned and developed quickly the fundamentals of high school football. These freshmen are looked upon to provide good varsity material in the years to come.

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Varsity Field Hockey

The Redlegs' season was extremely impressive this year. Their final record was 5 wins, 3 ties, and no losses. The 2-0 win over Kents Hill will especially be remembered, for Kents Hill was unbeaten until their first game with Cony.

Senior members of the team are: Linda Hodgson, Pat Arbor, Donese Marcho, Holly Stotler, Denise Wing, Co-Captain Holly Mudge, Co-Captain Mary Marsh, Lorna Merrill, Donna Drake, and Jane Evers.

For the second year in a row the annual all-star hockey game was cancelled, but Cony still had five players on the varsity and reserve teams. Linda Hodgson and Holly Mudge were all-star players, while Betty Perkins, Mary Marsh, and Pat Arbor were reserve players.

Standing: Coach Hunt, Managers J. Violette and D. Rand, C. Gallant, D. Crosby, C. Wheeler, B. Fairbrother, E. Morrill, Statistician R. Wood, Manager D. Nicholas, Coach Brown.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach Richard A. Hunt and his Cony Rams enjoyed an excellent season this year. They proudly supported a 12-6 record which was good enough for third place in the Eastern Maine LL Basketball Standings. Although this was the highest ranked Cony team in many years, the boys were unable to get by the tournament preliminary game against the Bangor High School Rams. Cony bowed out 52-47.

This year's squad won all nine of its home games and smothered the rival Gardiner Tigers in both encounters. The Rams were very pleased with the support they received from Mr. Arbor, the faculty, the students, and the general public both at the Armory and on the road.

Senior members, who will be missed by next year's team, are Co-Captains Parker Beverage and Don Pruett, Doug Morrill, Ron Nickerson, Roland Ouellette, Tom Rand, and Pete Washburn.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's Junior Varsity under the fine coaching of Mr. D. Robert Brown posted a very respectable 10-8 record. With the exception of Lewiston the Rams beat every team on their 18-game schedule at least once, and like the Varsity, they toppled the Gardiner Tigers twice. The season saw progressive improvement in several players, and Coach Brown's aggregation should supply the Varsity with some good material in the future.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

This year the Cony Frosh was one of seven teams to join the newly organized Central Maine Freshman Basketball League, and the Baby Rams demonstrated their prowess by capping the initial league title. They accomplished this feat by trimming the Morse Shipbuilders 63-56 in a playoff game. During the regular season Coach William Hanlon did a trememdous job in directing his boys to an extremely fine 11-3 record. Brunswick was the only team which could stop the Rams twice.

Kneeling: T. Kaler, J. Vautier, D. Whitney, N. Beaudoin, Captain T. Simpson.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Although the Girls' Varsity Basketball team ended with a 4 win, 4 loss season, the girls had a better showing on the court than their record shows. Two games were lost by one point: the game at Kents Hill and the home Winthrop game in overtime. These were exceptionally hard-fought games and heart-breaking to lose. Seniors on the team were Co-Capt. Jane Evers, Co-Capt. Holly Mudge, Mary Marsh, Diana Nichols, Julie Bernier, Lorna Merrill, Jane Leighton, Nancy Overlock, and Manager Donna Drake.

TRACK

The Cony Track team had its final season on Williams Field; next year the Rams will be moving to their new track at Capitol Park. Coach Dana Dogherty and assistant Mr. Dionne had a respectable 1964 season, especially in the running events. Senior Doug Morrill, who as a junior capped the 100-yard dash, the 220, the broad jump, and the hop, step, and jump in the KVC meet, and the State Title in the 220, proved an equally impressive trackman this season. Other senior runners who greatly added to the cause were Jim Downing, Doug Whittier, and speedy Lonny Piper. A deserving hand also goes to these men who enjoyed their final season of high school track: Tom Dunn, John Loring, George Pillsbury, Lee Stinchfield, and Roger Woodcock.

VARSITY BASEBALL

This year's Varsity Baseball team got off to an impressive start with a 9-1 win over strong Waterville High. Following the initial win, the team lost to Rockland 6-3 but rebounded the following day to defeat Kents Hill 3-1. With only three seniors on the team, Coach Brown certainly has a fine nucleus of underclassmen, who should be ready to make Cony a feared baseball power in future years.

Kneeling: R. Tibeau, L. Smith, E. Sproul, P. MacFarland, R. Cross, L. Webster, K. Estes, G. Cormier, G. Prescott.
Standing: Coach Mr. Soule, R. Gagnon, R. Gotreau, B. Ellis, D. Olson, J. Lothridge, R. Leach, B. Martin, K. Bradford, L. Bunnell, Manager C. Pike, Manager K. Hallowell.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

After a year without a Junior Varsity team, Cony decided to field one this year to insure a steady flow of talent for the varsity. The Jayvees began their series with a victory over Waterville, a strong competitor. Mr. Soule, this year's coach, was very anxious to mold future varsity ballplayers, and the results were well worth the effort.

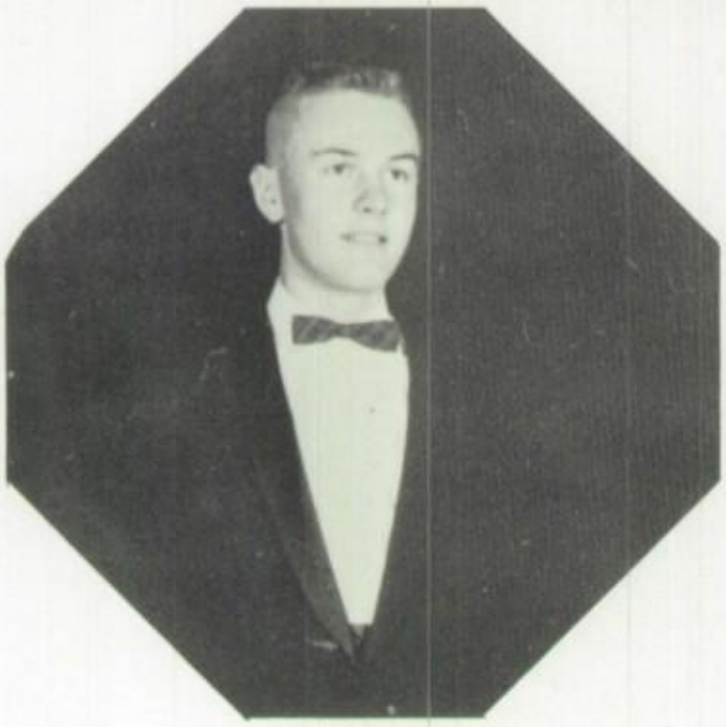
Activities

Student activities make up a large part of the extra-curricular program at Cony. Perhaps the most outstanding activity of the year is Chizzle Wizzle with its olios and play, colorful booths, and gala ball. Besides Chizzle Wizzle, Cony offers a wide variety of musical organizations, clubs, and publications. Every student is given the opportunity to participate in some activity in order to supplement his classroom education.

Seated: Carol Gilfillan, Jack Tarr, Bob Barrett, Janie Leighton.
Standing: Pat Arbour, Roger Beaudoin, Pete Meagher, Diane Violette.



The 73rd Chizzle Wizzle Executive Committee, under the direction of President Jack Tarr, enjoyed more than eight weeks of preparation previous to the three nights of minstrel and olios. Working with Mr. Ayotte, Mrs. O'Connell, and other faculty advisors were Roger Beaudoin, vice-president; Pat Arbour, treasurer; Pete Meagher, assistant treasurer; Diane Violette, secretary; Bob Barrett, booth chairman; and Janie Leighton and Carol Gilfillan, ball co-chairmen.

CHIZZLE WIZZLE 1964

The theme of the 73rd annual Chizzle Wizzle, "Follow the Stars," incorporated a double meaning. The Executive Committee intended this title to depict a wandering spirit, as well as to mean, literally, follow the Cony stars, Holly Mudge, Ed Holt, Nancy Overlock, and many others. The Ball theme, "Winken, Blinken, and Nod," merely stemmed from the story-book facet of the stars.

Chizzle Wizzle Play

This year's Chizzle Wizzle Play, Annie Get Your Gun, was presented on Friday evening, May eighth. With its Western setting, romantic plot, and amusing characters, it proved one of the most delightful play performances in years.

Seniors in the cast were Holly Mudge, Parker Beverage, Jim Downing, Ruth Pierce, Noel Bailey, Ed Holt, Don Trott, Fred Hastings, Pennie Hume, Sue Kotler, Mary Marsh, and Denise Wing.

Underclassmen included: John Carleton, Ray Chevarie, Paul MacFarland, Bob Gilbert, Linda Darlington, Theresa Betit, Ed Sproul, Ronal Henry, Kathy Wilcox, Pat Kimball, Jane Gidney, Lorie Zientara, Janice Dyke, Joan Vincent, Judy Vincent, Jon Bailey, Tom Stone, Cathy Buotte, Gloria Boggs, Joyce Malia, Cherry Gorton, Martha Buck, Charlene Bachand, Ann Stackpole, Lynda Bond, Kirk Springer, and Tim Russell. Doris Vaillancourt and Lynne Anderson were prompters.

Mrs. Helen Dyer and Mrs. Laura Turner directed the production with assistant directors, Debbie Winchenpaw and Margie Harrington.

"The score stands five for Oakley and five for Butler."

"It's all YOUR fault, Annie Oakley!"

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Cony High School Student Council is a governing body made up of three faculty members and sixteen students, four from each class. This year's officers are Parker Beverage, President; Eric Morrill, Vice-President; Patricia Cyr, Secretary. Mr. Arbor, Miss McAllister, and Mr. Dogherty are the faculty advisors; and the other members are Seniors: Patricia Arbour, Edward Holt, Diane Violette; Juniors: Charles Gallant, Carol Gilfillan, Betty Perkins; Sophomores: Ann Chaplin, John Cunningham, Dana Dix; and Freshmen: Kathy Brookes, Terry Kaler, Roger Katz, and Diane Pepin.

Early in October, Parker Beverage represented Cony at the 21st annual Bellamy Flag Award ceremonies in Chattanooga, Tennessee. During his week's stay he had the opportunity to observe the activities at Central High School, the 1963 recipient of the award.

On November 15 and 16, the Student Council attended the State Student Council Convention at Lawrence High School in Fairfield. At that time Betty Perkins ran unsuccessfully for state secretary, and Parker Beverage led a discussion group Saturday morning.

Managers for Cony athletic teams were approved by the council, the new Dramatic Club was sanctioned, and routine matters received attention.

The National Student Council Convention is to be held in Bangor, Maine, this June; it is anticipated that several representatives from Cony will attend.

Music

The biggest band in Cony's history achieved a status this year which equaled that of any band in the state. This was proven last fall on the football field by fine half-time demonstrations and at pep rallies. The concert band, with its choice membership, also provided sparkle in concerts throughout the year.

But the talent was not only instrumental; in the vocal department, the Glee Club was "the best in ten years." The success of the Bar Harbor exchange concert and the assemblies held during the year attested to that fact. The Mikado, the first operetta to be produced for many years, earned the Glee Club much praise.

Cony was also well represented in state-wide concerts and competitions. Of special note were the many first chairs filled by Cony students in the K-V Band, and the high scores received by All-Staters. We can indeed, look back upon a satisfying year.

GLEE CLUB

The 1963-64 season was a very busy one for the Cony Glee Club. Early in the fall, the students entertained the Bar Harbor Glee Club and presented an excellent concert. At Christmas, the group sang throughout the city and gave an assembly. Their biggest production of the year, the Mikado, which was enthusiastically received, proved the ability of all the members.

Dance Band

The Cony Dance Band was organized in 1960 under the direction of Mr. Charles Danforth. It is composed of about fifteen members, both freshmen and upperclassmen. Each year the band adds its touch to the Chizzle Wizzle Olios. It also appears at various other school functions.

ORCHESTRA

This year did not see the Cony Orchestra as active as in past years. However, as the Coniad goes to press, plans are being made for the annual Spring Concert. As usual, the orchestra is to play for the Chizzle Wizzle Play and for graduation. Too, several members will participate in the All-State Orchestra.

Seated: Sally Pike, Patricia Phillips.
Standing: Lorraine Dugan, Weston Baker, Penelope Hume.

IN APPRECIATION

We, the members of the 1964 Coniad Staff, wish to express our deepest thanks to our advisor, Miss Giddings, who has patiently given so many hours to help us organize our yearbook. Special thanks go also to Miss Vickery, who has so capably advised our business staff. Above all, our deepest appreciation goes to our advertisers, who on so many occasions give of themselves to support our school. Please patronize them for, essentially it is they who make our yearbook possible.
